

Intercessions

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time—September 6, 2020

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- That the church, with its differences and disagreements, may be a model of true healing and reconciliation. We pray,
- For the resolution of conflicts between and among the world's nations in this time of nationalism. We pray,
- For those situations in which reconciliation seems impossible, or wherever conflict leads to hatred, violence, or war; and for families in need of reconciliation. We pray
- For those who use conflict for their own benefit; those unwilling to reconcile with others; and those who do not know how. We pray
- For those willing to speak the truth in the face of offensive behavior, discord, conflict or evil. We pray
- For all workers, especially the underpaid and those who must work in unsafe conditions; and for those who have lost jobs in this pandemic. We pray,
- For this community and our leaders as we remain separated; for those among us who are suffering, grieving, or in any kind of need; for those in need of reconciliation; and for those we are called to continue to serve. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the grace to be peacemakers in a world in need of healing (Pause). For all these things, we pray ,
