

Intercessions

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time—September 20, 2020

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- For the whole church: That we may be unequivocally open to God’s lavish call and action in our lives. We pray,
- For a national attitude and policies that promote justice and caring for all, especially the poor and disenfranchised; and for the willingness to address systemic racism. We pray,
- For those who have never experienced the generosity of others or who feel unworthy of God’s love and generosity. We pray,
- For those who believe that others must earn respect, kindness or generosity; and for those who carefully measure what we are called to freely give. We pray,
- For parents, teacher and all who are striving to teach our children and youth openness and generosity in a “me” and “my needs” culture. We pray,
- For this community and our leaders as we remain separated during this pandemic; for those among us who are suffering, grieving, or in any kind of need; and for all those who need our love and care in this sacred corner of the city and beyond. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the grace to be as magnanimous toward others as God is to us (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
