

Intercessions

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 4, 2020

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- For the church: For the lay and ordained leadership that is needed in the 21st century. We pray,
- For the grace to live free of anxiety in an anxiety-laden time; for those who are close to the edge because of the issues we are all facing. We pray,
- For the vineyards—and forests that are burning in western states; for a national consensus on the importance of addressing climate change. We pray,
- For an awareness of the gift and the responsibility of our calling as Christians at this particular time—when the future of our country and the world are at stake. We pray,
- For our country's leaders suffering from the corona virus; for the ramifications to our nation's stability; and for wisdom and humility in dealing with what lies ahead. We pray,
- For this community and our leaders as we remain separated during this pandemic; for those among us who are suffering, grieving, or in any kind of need; for those who need to experience peace; and for those we are called to love and serve in this sacred corner of the city and beyond. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the willingness to embrace completely the calling that is ours (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
