

Intercessions

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 11, 2020

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- For the whole church: That God's calling and promise to protect and care for us may make us humble servants of one another. We pray,
- For those who are doubtful, tired, confused or afraid...who don't know how long they will have work, shelter or food. We pray,
- For those whose perception of God has been skewed by the behavior of others or by life circumstances. We pray,
- For those who think they have the fullness of truth or refuse to understand how others see God; and for honesty about our own faith and Christian commitment. We pray,
- For patience and wisdom as we negotiate the muddy waters of politics and the containment of the covid virus, during this time of misinformation, suspicion and bias. We pray,
- For this community and our leaders as we remain separated during this pandemic; for those among us who are suffering, grieving, or in any kind of need; for those we know who are affected by covid; and for those we are called to love and serve wherever they appear. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the strength to respond fully to God's life-giving invitation, no matter how inconvenient it may be (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
