

Intercessions

All Saints—November 1, 2020

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- For all of us in the church, for our new confirmands and for all believers seeking to live with integrity in the communion of saints. We pray,
- For an outcome in Tuesday's election that will promote peacemakers and a safe, secure and welcoming environment for all people, with no exceptions or exclusions. We pray,
- For the poor in spirit who live humbly and with profound respect for others; and for the merciful who show love and compassion toward those who have offended them. We pray,
- For those who mourn, who have lost loved ones, their homes or their possessions, through war or natural disaster, illness or loss of work. We pray,
- For those who yearn for or are persecuted for righteousness: who live simply, or who suffer or are martyred for faith, justice or human rights. We pray,
- For this community and our leaders as we remain separated during this pandemic; for those among us who are suffering, grieving, or in any kind of need; for all who will be voting this week, those who choose not to vote, and those who are unable to vote for any reason. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the courage to live as today's gospel calls us to live (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
