

Frost is imminent. The last week was spent by the Garden Gang harvesting the last tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, bitter melon, and white gourd and digging the taro and sweet potatoes.

This Sunday and for the near future there will be sweet potatoes and garlic in the back of church for the taking. Depending on when you swing but the garden and the severity of the frost the following may still be available:

South Garden

Beds 2: Collards.

Beds 2,3, 16, and 17: Kale.

Bed 18: Swiss Chard

Along the Edges of Many of the Beds: Green Onions.

East Garden

1st bed from the Church - Green Beans.

2nd bed from the Church - Lettuce and Beets.
