

Intercessions
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 25, 2020

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- For the church and all people of faith: That we may live—especially at this time—in faithfulness to the great commandments. We pray,
- For the grace to love and the courage to confront those who stand in the way of peace and justice. We pray,
- For the aliens and widowed, the orphaned and poor of the world—that they may have a permanent position of primacy in our lives. We pray,
- For the courage, in this political climate, to advocate and promote political decisions that reflect our call to serve others—including our response to the Covid virus. We pray,
- For international and national, private and public institutions that serve the world’s most needy people and for adequate funding to support them. We pray,
- For this community and our leaders as we remain separated during this pandemic; for those among us who are suffering, grieving, or in any kind of need; for those of us who are weary of politics and conflict ; and for those we are called to love and serve in this sacred corner of the city and beyond. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the courage to remember Jesus’ challenge to us (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
