

Intercessions

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time—November 8, 2020

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- For the whole church, that we may have wisdom and vision as we actively await the fulfillment of Christ's promise of eternal life. We pray,
- For all those who need hope in the face of violence, poverty, illness or any kind of insecurity—especially those with little power to help themselves. We pray,
- For hope and attention in the wake of this election; for the grace to focus on what matters to us as believers and the courage to take whatever action is needed. We pray,
- For our children and youth who need faith, hope and confidence for, and who will be ultimately responsible for, shaping the future. We pray,
- For laser-sharp attention on those around us, especially those we may disagree with or have written off for any reason; for unity in a divided nation. We pray,
- For this community and our leaders as we remain separated during this pandemic; for those among us who are suffering, grieving, or in any kind of need; for those who are overwhelmed with the tasks before us; and for those we are called to attend to in this sacred corner of the city and beyond. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the energy to stay awake and alert (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
