

Intercessions
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 2, 2022

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios....

- For a divided church that struggles to articulate and shape a viable vision for the future; for the ability to utilize our God-given power, love, self-control and strength. We pray,
- On this Respect Life Sunday, we hope for a world that values human life and human rights; for all who are struggling with different understandings of what this means. We pray,
- For those whose lives are threatened: the abused or imprisoned, those in the path of war, those struggling with abortion and victims of abortion. We pray,
- For all who have lost faith in the future—who worry about their children, the economy, global warming, the loss of democracy; for all who ask: “How long. O lord? We pray,
- For all those impacted by Hurricane Ian; for those suffering from loss of life, health, property or work; for first responders and all who must help Florida recover. We pray,
- For all those in any kind of pain or need in this community; and for those whose lives we hope to ease through our ministries in this Sacred Corner of the City and beyond. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the ability to sustain a strong faith and vision even in difficult times (pause). For all these things, we pray.
