

Intercessions
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 23, 2022

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios....

- For a church seeking to promote justice and serve the “lowly”, while struggling with humility. We pray,
- For those who feel deserted, who long for God to appear in some way—any way, especially the abused, scandalized, disappointed or forgotten. We pray,
- For those who struggle with the dilemma of making their voices heard while also embracing humility—when humility appears as a weakness. We pray,
- For wisdom and humility in this political environment, in which we are all convinced of our righteousness. We pray,
- For those who have finished the race, kept the faith, and acted on behalf of justice; for the great leaders in the struggle for justice in America; and for new leaders to move us forward. We pray,
- For all in this community or among our loved ones in any kind of need; for those suffering from any injustice--who need our care and attention in this sacred corner of the city and beyond . We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for the will to respond to the cries of the oppressed whenever we hear them (Pause). For all these things, we pray.
