

Intercessions

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time—November 6, 2022

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios....

- For the Church—both world-wide and in local communities: That it may be open to whatever the God of New Life calls it to be or do. We pray,
- For those whose lives are too painful, too frightening, too overwhelming to sustain faith in any kind of God. We pray,
- For patience and endurance for those experiencing theological questions or frustration with church teachings, laws, or practices. We pray,
- For our country and the needs of our citizens, as we face an election fraught with dangerous rhetoric, conspiracy theories, political violence, and the demonization of political opponents. We pray,
- For faith in the God of the Living, when everything around us seems to be falling apart. We pray,
- For all in this community or among our loved ones in any kind of need; for the sick, the dying and the grieving; and for all whose lives are sustained by our individual care and our parish ministries. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns; and for ability to keep our eyes on the Living God, despite life's many distractions (pause). For all these things, we pray.
