

“For I was hungry and you fed me; thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me; naked and you clothed me. I was ill and you comforted me; in prison and you came to visit me.”

Matthew 25:35

As a part of our Lenten journey with St. James, please consider these options.

Pray for all undocumented immigrants – especially those coming from Central and South America, and Mexico.

Give contributions for those in need in Anapra, Mexico through Manos Amigas. Visit <https://manosamigaskc.org> to donate time or talents.

Join St. James Social Justice Committee, which is involved in immigrant issues and reaching out to those in need. This committee is a place to get involved with Matthew’s call. Contact Diane Etzel-Wise (913.484.3953 or dianeew72@gmail.com).

Support: If you are an undocumented immigrant or know someone who is undocumented, contact Connie Anderson at 913.515.3650 for information on getting a green card. We can help with advice and financial support.

Donate items on Pantry Sunday, 4th Sunday of the month here at St. James.

Volunteer at Bishop Sullivan Center, two doors south of St. James. Call 816.231.0984.

(See other side)

“For I was hungry and you fed me; thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me; naked and you clothed me. I was ill and you comforted me; in prison and you came to visit me.”

Matthew 25:35

As a part of our Lenten journey with St. James, please consider these options.

Pray for all undocumented immigrants – especially those coming from Central and South America, and Mexico.

Give contributions for those in need in Anapra, Mexico through Manos Amigas. Visit <https://manosamigaskc.org> to donate time or talents.

Join St. James Social Justice Committee, which is involved in immigrant issues and reaching out to those in need. This committee is a place to get involved with Matthew’s call. Contact Diane Etzel-Wise (913.484.3953 or dianeew72@gmail.com).

Support: If you are an undocumented immigrant or know someone who is undocumented, contact Connie Anderson at 913.515.3650 for information on getting a green card. We can help with advice and financial support.

Donate items on Pantry Sunday, 4th Sunday of the month here at St. James.

Volunteer at Bishop Sullivan Center, two doors south of St. James. Call 816.231.0984.

(See other side)

“For I was hungry and you fed me; thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me; naked and you clothed me. I was ill and you comforted me; in prison and you came to visit me.”

Matthew 25:35

As a part of our Lenten journey with St. James, please consider these options.

Pray for all undocumented immigrants – especially those coming from Central and South America, and Mexico.

Give contributions for those in need in Anapra, Mexico through Manos Amigas. Visit <https://manosamigaskc.org> to donate time or talents.

Join St. James Social Justice Committee, which is involved in immigrant issues and reaching out to those in need. This committee is a place to get involved with Matthew’s call. Contact Diane Etzel-Wise (913.484.3953 or dianeew72@gmail.com).

Support: If you are an undocumented immigrant or know someone who is undocumented, contact Connie Anderson at 913.515.3650 for information on getting a green card. We can help with advice and financial support.

Donate items on Pantry Sunday, 4th Sunday of the month here at St. James.

Volunteer at Bishop Sullivan Center, two doors south of St. James. Call 816.231.0984.

(See other side)

"For I was hungry and you fed me; thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me; naked and you clothed me. I was ill and you comforted me; in prison and you came to visit me."

Matthew 25:35

As a part of our Lenten journey with St. James, please consider these options.

Place a "COEXIST" or "IMMIGRANTS & REFUGEES WELCOME" bumper sticker on your car. See Church entry.

Help with educational needs in Togo, Africa through the ASDF-African Self-Determination Fund. Contact Albertine Kangni-Soukpe makanle@yahoo.fr

Collect money in RICE BOWLS. This is a traditional practice of donating to those in need. Rice Bowls are in the back of Church.

Pray for all refugees – especially those from Gaza, Israel, Ukraine, Russia, Somalia, Iraq, Iran, Sudan, Syria, Yemen & Libya.

Donate to Troost39 Thrift Store. Help with in-kind or monetary donations. Items most in need include household items, linens, dishes, cookware, and MEN'S CLOTHING. Please make checks payable to "Troost39."

Join
+KC Welcome Alliance at
www.kcwelcomealliance.org/

+Bus Stop Ministry- contact
Mary Vincent 816.561.8512

+Harvesters Help- contact
Barbara Schepers 816.810.8809

(See other side)

"For I was hungry and you fed me; thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me; naked and you clothed me. I was ill and you comforted me; in prison and you came to visit me."

Matthew 25:35

As a part of our Lenten journey with St. James, please consider these options.

Place a "COEXIST" or "IMMIGRANTS & REFUGEES WELCOME" bumper sticker on your car. See Church entry.

Help with educational needs in Togo, Africa through the ASDF-African Self-Determination Fund. Contact Albertine Kangni-Soukpe makanle@yahoo.fr

Collect money in RICE BOWLS. This is a traditional practice of donating to those in need. Rice Bowls are in the back of Church.

Pray for all refugees – especially those from Gaza, Israel, Ukraine, Russia, Somalia, Iraq, Iran, Sudan, Syria, Yemen & Libya.

Donate to Troost39 Thrift Store. Help with in-kind or monetary donations. Items most in need include household items, linens, dishes, cookware, and MEN'S CLOTHING. Please make checks payable to "Troost39."

Join
+KC Welcome Alliance at
www.kcwelcomealliance.org/

+Bus Stop Ministry- contact
Mary Vincent 816.561.8512

+Harvesters Help- contact
Barbara Schepers 816.810.8809

(See other side)

"For I was hungry and you fed me; thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me; naked and you clothed me. I was ill and you comforted me; in prison and you came to visit me."

Matthew 25:35

As a part of our Lenten journey with St. James, please consider these options.

Place a "COEXIST" or "IMMIGRANTS & REFUGEES WELCOME" bumper sticker on your car. See Church entry.

Help with educational needs in Togo, Africa through the ASDF-African Self-Determination Fund. Contact Albertine Kangni-Soukpe makanle@yahoo.fr

Collect money in RICE BOWLS. This is a traditional practice of donating to those in need. Rice Bowls are in the back of Church.

Pray for all refugees – especially those from Gaza, Israel, Ukraine, Russia, Somalia, Iraq, Iran, Sudan, Syria, Yemen & Libya.

Donate to Troost39 Thrift Store. Help with in-kind or monetary donations. Items most in need include household items, linens, dishes, cookware, and MEN'S CLOTHING. Please make checks payable to "Troost39."

Join
+KC Welcome Alliance at
www.kcwelcomealliance.org/

+Bus Stop Ministry- contact
Mary Vincent 816.561.8512

+Harvesters Help- contact
Barbara Schepers 816.810.8809

(See other side)