

Intercessions
Fifth Sunday of Lent—March 17, 2024

Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios.

- For the whole church: that we may have the courage to follow wherever Jesus leads us—no matter how painful the path. We pray,
- For all who have suffered on behalf of those in need or danger, especially civil rights advocates, first responders, medical personnel, and members of the military. We pray,
- For all of us who are called to make sacrifices on behalf of our families or others; for struggling families; and for gratitude for those who help us in any way. We pray,
- For those struggling to accept suffering and death as an essential part of life; those who have lost hope; and those who feel they have little to give others. We pray,
- For our Muslim brothers and sisters observing the Ramadan fast—especially those in Israel and Gaza. We pray,
- For this community—especially those suffering in silence; and for those we are called to serve in this sacred corner of the city and beyond. We pray,
- We pray now for our own needs; and for the courage to faithfully walk the path that Jesus walked (pause). For all these things, we pray,
