

Intercessions
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 27, 2024

Cantor: Chu Kwu Nu Lu Olum.

- For the church--that we may have eyes to see the world's critical needs and how we can respond to them. We pray,
- For those who see suffering, but do not respond to it—who judge rather than support those in duress. We pray,
- For the physically blind; those who struggle with vision problems; and all who work to help us see both the pain and the beauty of our world. We pray,
- For the Middle East, where cries for help emerge from sides lost in opposing histories, politics and visions. We pray,
- For the coming election, as our divided nation struggles with what we most need and who we want to be. We pray,
- For anyone in this community who is suffering in any way—especially those whose needs we may not know; and for those whose calls for help we seek to hear and alleviate through our parish ministries. We pray,
- We pray now for our own needs and for the grace to see what we must, but may not want to, see (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
