

Intercessions
31st Sunday in Ordinary Time—Nov. 3, 2024

Cantor: Chu Kwu Nu Lu Olum.

- For the church: that love of God and love of neighbor may shine through all our words and actions—especially in a culture that makes love of neighbor seem naive. We pray,
- For those who are wounded or broken—who feel unloved or unable to love another. We pray,
- For counselors and therapists, spiritual guides and social workers, friends and companions: for all who strive to heal those who feel unloved. We pray,
- For those who have loved us unconditionally; and for all who seek to love others who may be difficult to love. We pray,
- For the election and its followup; for healing of the animosity that is endangering our nation’s democracy and the well-being of our citizens. We pray,
- For anyone in this community who is suffering in any way—especially those who may feel vulnerable or unloved; and for those we seek to love through our parish ministries in this sacred corner of the city and beyond. We pray,
- We pray now for our own needs and for the grace to demonstrate love when it’s the most difficult to do (Pause).
For all these things, we pray,
