

Intercessions
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time—Nov. 10, 2024

Cantor: Chu Kwu Nu Lu Olum.

- For the church: that its image and actions may reflect its call to serve the poor at a deeply sacrificial level. We pray,
- For all who resist helping those in need, including by bearing their fair share in taxes that support our economic system. We pray,
- For those who must beg for the most basic needs of human existence for themselves and their families. We pray,
- For those who struggle to understand God’s promises in the contradictions of daily life and world events. We pray,
- For our divided nation, which appears under threat in a new political reality and priorities favoring the wealthy; and for those responsible for leading us in the next 4 years. We pray,
- For anyone in this community who is suffering in any way—especially those whose needs are hidden from us; and for the continued funding and growth of our parish ministries that serve the needy, both locally and internationally. We pray,
- We pray now for our own concerns and for the compassion and generosity to see and respond to those who depend on us for their wellbeing (Pause). For all these things, we pray,
