Cantor: Oyenos, mi Dios...

- For the church, that it may remember the reality of the crucifixion in its history and its identity. We pray,
- For all who feel abandoned, mocked, humiliated or betrayed. We pray,
- For St. James, that we may learn the role of the crucifixion in who we are as a community. We pray,
- For those who resist the administration's promotion of an authoritarian form of the Executive branch. We pray,
- For governments that are focused on the use of fossil fuels, rather than the reality of, and their role in, climate change. We pray,
- For this community, especially those whose needs are unknown to us; for those who cannot identify at all with the crucifixion; and for those we strive to serve through our personal and parish ministries. We pray,
- For our own needs and concerns, and for the grace to reflect on what the crucifixion means in our own lives. For all these things, we pray.
